

Representative Legal Matters

Boris Wenger

- Represented Nikon in the Competition Commission's investigation and in appeal proceedings with respect to the authority's CHF12.5 million fine for restriction of parallel imports.
- Represented a multinational bank in the Competition Commission's investigation into Libor abuse by banks and brokers.
- Represented a Swiss galvanizing company in the Competition Commission's investigation into price collusion.
- Represented Viseca Card Services SA and Aduno SA in the Competition Commission's investigation into anti-competitive agreements on credit card interchange fees.
- Represented various clients in connection with informal Competition Commission investigations.
- Advised Clariant on multijurisdictional filing requirements in connection with various transactions.
- Advised Telecom Liechtenstein on multijurisdictional filing requirements in connection with the mobilkom Liechtenstein merger.
- Developed and implemented compliance and regulatory training for various clients including listed companies.
- Represented a UK software provider in an appeal against a tender of the Swiss national railway company before the Federal Administrative Tribunal.
- Advised Swiss subsidiaries of FLSmidth group on various international trade compliance issues.
- Advised a leading Swiss clinic on various healthcare compliance issues.